

Advanced Scientific Writing Workshop

June 5 - July 10, 2020

This five-week intensive training workshop will enable participants to produce a publishable scientific text i.e. a journal article or a book chapter.

Features:

- Intensive writing process
- Expert mentor support, review and reflections
- Peer reviews among the participants
- Preparing manuscript for publication (journal article or book chapter)

Thematic areas:

Themes for writing can include but not limited to:

- Disaster risk reduction (including COVID - 19 and its impact on different sectors)
- Climate change
- Forestry
- Water security
- Public policy and local governance
- Entrepreneurship
- Innovation development.

Who can participate?

- Researchers and MPhil, Doctoral or Post-doctoral students
- At least Masters in social, environmental or development studies
- Must be engaged in some research

Number of participants:

Upto 20 participants

Course Duration:

5 weeks - 2 hours per week (a total of 10 hours)
+20 hours of guided self study

Course Fee:

NRs 5000 per participant (payable at enrollment)

How to apply?

Email your expression of interest to Gyanu Maskey (maskeygyanu@gmail.com) with a 250-300 word abstract or summary by May 27, 2020

Organised by: